JACK THE KISSER SOON CAME TO GRIEF

When He Tackled a Louisville Matron.

Texas Girl Returns to Life—Actor Wants to Be a Saloonkeeper at Kingfisher.

SOME UNUSUAL HAPPENINGS.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 7.—"Rippy the Kissar," who has been terrorizing pretty women for the last ten days, almost came to grief when he seized Mrs. Julia Hild, wife of the superintendent of the board of children's guardians, and tried to caress her. Mrs. Hild, who is prominent in society, and an active member of a physician culture class, was on her way home from a meeting of the club, when the "Kisser," described as good looking and 19, suddenly clutched her around the waist. Mrs. Hild upreared her assailant on the nose, drawing blood, which splattered on the snow. The man ran and got away, although pursued by James Stone and a negress.

"Rippy the Kissar," tried to stab Mrs. Hild, but the blade of his weapon did not pass through the stays of her corset. The knife fell to the ground and Mrs. Hild turned it over to the police.

Came to Life After the Inquest.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 7.—After a physician of El Paso had pronounced her dead and the coroner had rendered a verdict in "accordance with the facts," Ester Cordozo, aged 26, is, thirty hours later, still alive, with a promise of recovery.

Leaving a note containing a request "Don't tell mother until I am buried," the young woman is said to have swallowed an ounce of carbolic acid.

Child Smothered to Death.

Arcola, Ill., Feb. 7.—The 4-months old child of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Lynn was smothered to death. Having spent the day in town, they started to drive to their home, four miles in the country, wrapping the little fellow up in a comforter to keep him warm. When they reached home the baby was dead.

Actor Wants to Be Saloonkeeper.

Kingfisher, Okla., Feb. 7.—The hardest fought liquor case in Kingfisher county history has been in progress here ten days, where Ed Coke, who for two years starred in Ter Nights in a Barroom, is applicant for a license to sell liquor in Kingfisher city. The temperance element is opposing it.

Keeping On the Lid.

Terre Haute, Ind., Feb. 7.—In the police court the thirty bakers arrested for plying their vocation Sundays were dismissed, the prosecutor deciding that the baking of bread is a necessity.

The violators of the saloon-closing act will be prosecuted to the extent of the law, but others arrested for violations of the blue laws will be dealt with lightly.

Burns While Tied in Chair.

Fort Worth, Tex., Feb. 7.—The little child of Mrs. Will Meyers, living in Kent county, was tied in a rocking chair and placed in front of a fire by its mother, who then left the house. On her return she found the child writhing in flames ignited from the fire. It is so frightfully burned that its toes have dropped off.

Died at Wedding.

Guthrie, Okla., Feb. 7.—Mrs. W. Howman, of De Kalb county, Mo., who has been visiting her sister in Kingfisher, was stricken with paralysis while attending a wedding reception there and died. The body was taken to Missouri for burial. She was stricken while shaking hands with and congratulating the bridegroom.

A Mystery Solved.

"How to keep off periodic attacks of biliousness and habitual constipation was a mystery that Dr. King's New Life Pills solved for me," writes John N. Pleasant, of Magnolia, Ind. The only pills that are guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction to everybody or money refunded. Only 25c at McPherson's drug store.

They Met in Tokio.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 7.—Mrs. Louisiana Breckinridge Hart Gibson Maxfield, of Lexington, was married last Friday at St. Augustine, Fla., to Frederick Johannus Hugo von Engelken, who renounced his allegiance to the emperor in order to become her husband. He met her at Tokio, in the German embassy.

Winter or summer, Mrs. Austin's Pancake flour. Always good, grocers.

LINCOLN AND DAVIS

MAY BE SELECTED FOR KENTUCKY'S HALL OF FAME.

Committees Decide on a Number of Important Bills Before Them

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 7.—The senate committee on public monuments and historical records has decided to recommend a bill appropriating $15,000 for two statues in the Hall of Fame, and selecting Lincoln and Davis for the honor. The opinion of the committee is unanimous.

The bill is believed to have the cordial support of Gov. Beckham, who is credited by members of the committee with being the original advocate of Lincoln and Davis. This selection is also the choice of the State Historical Association, although the Filson club, of Louisville, favors Clay and Clark.

The house committee on circuit courts, to which was referred Alverton's bill to place statues of Clay and Goebel in the Hall of Fame, has decided to recommend the bill favorably. Unless Speaker Lawrence refers this bill to its proper committee he will succeed in preventing the legislature from selecting statues for the Hall of Fame.

The senate committee on Kentucky statues decided to recommend an appropriation of $40,000 for the Jamestown exposition. The Kentucky building will be a permanent one, and the state will forever own the site and building.

The house committee on suffrage and elections decided to report Yaden's bill allowing women to vote in local option elections, and requiring candidates to give an accounting of expenses.

The house committee on circuit courts decided to report a bill raising circuit judges' salaries from $3,000 to $5,000.

PROBABLY A FAKE.

Drug Firms Reported to Be in Big Trust Know Nothing About It.

An Eastern newspaper syndicate has been sending queries to papers all over Kentucky asking if they wanted names of drug stores in a big drug syndicate organized in New York. A number of papers "bit" and received the names of drug stores in various cities alleged to have joined, but when the owners of the stores were asked about it, they all denied positively that they knew anything about such an organization. In Louisville, Owensboro and Henderson the proprietors of drug stores said to have become members denied that they had even heard of the organization, hence it is likely that no Paducah druggists are members.

Galveston's Sea Wall

makes life now as safe in that city as on the higher uplands. E. W. Goodloe, who resides on Dutton, St., in Waco, Tex., needs no sea wall for safety. He writes: "I have used Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's gone." Cures chronic Coughs, La Grippe, Croup, Whooping Cough and prevents Pneumonia. Pleasant to take. Every bottle guaranteed at McPherson's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00 Trial bottle, free.

BACK AT SCHOOL.

Mayfield Girl Who Couldn't Learn Arithmetic Given Another Chance.

London, Ky., Feb. 7.—Miss Lura Davidson, the young lady who became despondent over her arithmetic lesson and stole away from a cottage where she was rooming and attending the Sue Bennett Memorial college, a week ago last Friday night went to Louisville and secured employment at the Louisville Hotel under the name of Miss Lena Dawson, has returned to London.

Some few days ago she wrote a letter to Miss Lucy Lee Mahan, the evangelist, who brought her here and put her in school, asking her to go to Prof. J. C. Lewis, principal of the school, and ask him to allow her to return and re-enter school. Her request was granted.

In Self Defense

NEW ORLEANS IS PREPARING FOR IT

Confederate Reunion to Be Elaborately Arranged.

Famous Hotel Royal Will Be Converted Into Temporary Barracks For Visitors.

FARE OF ONE CENT A MILE.

New Orleans, Feb. 7.—The Confederate veterans and the city council of New Orleans are making elaborate preparations for the annual reunion of the United Confederate Veterans, which will be held here in April. The city council has passed an ordinance permitting the use of the courthouse square, and Chairman Kruttschnitt of the committee on arrangements announces that work will be begun at once on an immense temporary auditorium, which will be used for a convention hall by the veterans.

The famous old Hotel Royal, once the state capital of Louisiana, has been secured by the committee on arrangements for barracks, and the great building will be overhauled and fitted up with beds and cots for the use of the soldiers free of charge. The Hotel Royal has several hundred rooms, and accommodations can be arranged in the building for a large number of veterans.

The merchants of Canal and St. Charles streets are raising a fund to illuminate those two thoroughfares during the reunion.

The local organization of veterans have opened headquarters in the old Canal Bank building, in Camp street, and committees will at once begin a vigorous campaign for funds for the reunion.

Arrangements have been completed for the illumination of the Lee monument, at the intersection of St. Charles and Howard avenues, in the colors of the Confederacy during reunion week.

All of the railroads entering New Orleans have announced a fare of one cent a mile for visitors to the reunion.

HATES WATER

Utah Woman Says She Hasn't Drank Any For 48 Years.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 7.—"Water makes me sick. I hate it. Sometimes the mere sight of it nauseates me." That is the reason Mrs. Sarah Mills, of Ogden, Utah, gives for not having drunk water for forty-eight years. Mrs. Mills is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Rawlins.

"My abstinence from water is not a matter of rule," Mrs. Mills said today. "I simply don't care for water as a beverage, and after having gone without it for a few months and suffering no ill effects, I got so I never thought of drinking it any more than I would think of taking a glass of poison. And it is a sort of poison to my system. When I was a little girl I remember that often a glass of water would make me deadly sick."

"What do you drink as a substitute for water?" was asked. "Tea, coffee, lemonade, and in the summer beer, are my principal beverages, but even of these I drink sparingly. When I am not feeling well I can go hours and hours without drinking anything. I cannot state the scientific reason for my loathing for water, having never consulted a physician on the subject. Some people have suggested that it is all imagination. That is not true. Water seems to poison my whole system, and that's all there is to it."

The End of the World. Of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago kidney trouble caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints, Blood diseases, Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by McPherson's drug store.

Third Romance Reported Due to Taft Expedition.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Still another romance as the result of the famous Taft expedition to the Philippines is in prospect, according to hints today by the secretary of war at a dinner given by him and Mrs. Taft in honor of the "engagement party," the name jocularly attached to the voyagers who made the oriental trip last summer. Details would follow later, Secretary Taft said, and then began an animated quizing of Senator Francis E. Warren.

of Wyoming, who is suspected of being one of the principals in the reported third romance of the jaunt.

The guests of honor at the dinner were Congressman Longworth and Miss Roosevelt and Congressman Swager Sherley, of Kentucky, and Miss Critten, whose engagement has been announced. The other guests included all the other members of the Philippine party now at the capital.
